

Hello!

The joyous (if slightly damp!) Platinum Jubilee Weekend is now behind us but there is still much to look forward to! Summer does seem to be with us (barring a few slip-ups in the weather here and there no doubt!) and it is not long until the longest day - otherwise known as Midsummer's Day! This year it falls on a Tuesday, but we decided to celebrate it a little early with a Jazz Cruise on the Thames on Friday 17 June.

What could be more lovely than boarding the "Golden Salamander" at Chiswick Pier in daylight, heading downstream towards Westminster whilst eating a delicious two course buffet supper and being serenaded by the popular jazz band Anacousis, and returning as darkness falls showing the twinkling banks of the Thames at their best?
